

Music Business

The music industry program is for musicians it's for people who love be around musicians.

Being in the music industry is not just about your ability to play an instrument, there's so much more to it than that.

You can spend more for an audio education that is not nearly as thorough.

Normally it's just music or business.

Our faculty are all professionals in the fields in which they're teaching.

They are subject matter experts.

I've learned The audio aspects of music, Recording technology, live sound production, The whole mixing and mastering process, The business side to the law side, Marketing, HACC's program really sets you up for success in the music business.

There's a place for you,

HACC is Musically YOURS.